The refined proportions of Chipperfield's modular hm93 design with its distinctive inset backrest positions, combine a dynamic and well-defined aesthetic with a high level of comfort. The range comprises one, two and three seat units, together with left- and right-handed chaise-longues and daybeds to allow the configuration of corner arrangements. The collection includes a generously proportioned double-fronted seating unit with the option of either straight or staggered backs, and a low coffee table.

Henry Blagg awarded his third Gold Medal

Commander Charles Henry Blagg is awarded his third Gold Medal after going to the aid of a shipwreck.

Henry Blagg is the RNLI's most decorated lifesaver. During his 53 years' service, alongside his dedicated crew, he saved 367 lives and helped to save 292 lives around the four lifeboats. Henry was awarded three Gold and four Silver Medals for gallantry, as well as the George Cross and the British Empire Medal, even modest. Blagg and his crew and many other awards mostly as a result of a shipwreck.
